

Bridging to Adulthood Tips: Respite & Day Programs for Adults with Disabilities

Respite and Daytime Programs for Adulthood

Adults with disabilities may access respite and daytime programs as part of their routines. In home or centre-based respite engages individuals in supervised, meaningful activities while providing a planned break for family caregivers for a specified time period. Day programs typically offer a variety of recreational, social, physical and community participation experiences in group formats.

How do I access and pay for adult respite or day programs?

Passport Program- Developmental Services Ontario (DSO)	If you are an adult with an intellectual disability and you are eligible for DSO, you can use your Passport Program Funding to pay for respite or daytime programs. Speak with your DSO worker about your funding and reimbursement process. https://www.dsontario.ca/passport-program
Ministry Directly Funded Spots - Developmental Services Ontario (DSO)	Sometimes adults with intellectual disabilities who are eligible for DSO are offered directly funded spots in respite or daytime programs. Direct spots are not guaranteed, often have waitlists, and are offered to individuals ranked as having the highest need. We still encourage you speak with your DSO worker about this possibility. https://www.dsontario.ca/funded-services
Toronto ABI Network	Adults with acquired brain injuries (ABI) may be eligible for time-limited day services in the community. Apply through the ABI Community Profile. https://abinetwork.ca/referral-forms/community-form/

LHIN Home and Community Care	The majority of day programs funded by LHIN Home and Community Care are for older adults. However, some regions may fund or link you to reduced cost programs for adults with acquired brain injuries, physical disabilities or complex medical needs. Speak with your LHIN Care Coordinator. http://healthcareathome.ca/
Alternative Funding	Families may apply to charitable organizations or alternative funding sources to help cover the costs or respite, daytime or recreation programs. Eligibility criteria vary. See Holland Bloorview's Funding &amp; Financial Supports Guide for options.
Out of pocket	Some families pay for respite or daytime programming their own money.
