Questions? Or looking for more information?

Please email friendshipparticipat@hollandbloorview.ca

Tell us: your name, your email and a phone number to reach you

- Space is limited and you must register to join. You will join the same timeslot each week.
- Priority will be given to new participants.
- You need a webcam for best participation. We will also recommend some apps for you to download such as Kahoot.
- If you are requesting to join our hangouts for the first time, we will call you to discuss the sessions to ensure the group will meet your needs. If you have joined virtual hangouts previously, we will confirm with you by email. We may offer you an alternate session time if your first choice is full.
- We use email to send you instructions and codes before each hangout session.
- If you are not able to join after you register, please email us so we can offer your spot to someone else.
