

How is your “legal” health?

PBO (Pro Bono Ontario) at Holland Bloorview helps clients and families find legal solutions to address the non-medical issues that may impact a child’s health or a family’s capacity to care for their child. Take this questionnaire to see if you need a legal check-up today!

- Do you have trouble making ends meet for your child’s special needs, housing, food etc.?
- Do you have health care coverage including coverage for assistive devices, supplies, prescriptions etc.?
- Do you have a safe, accessible & clean place to live for you and your child?
- Do you have concerns about estate planning?
- Do you have concerns about being able to make decisions for your child once he or she becomes an adult?
- Are you up to date in filing your income tax so you can access benefits?
- Is your child attending school? Does your child’s school placement meet their special needs?
- Do you have problems in the workplace (e.g. getting time off to care for child’s needs)?
- Do you have an immigration/status challenge?
- Do you have any other legal problems that may affect the care of your child?

If you have any of the above concerns, there may be a legal solution. Eligible clients and their families may access free legal assistance during business hours by contacting Hannah Lee at hannah@ProBonoOntario.org or 416-425-6220 ext 6557. Business hours are Wednesdays from 11:00 a.m. – 2:30 p.m. or, if by referral by the LIFEspan clinic, on Mondays from 11:00 a.m. -2:30 p.m.
